At the end of 2019 I decided to leave a ten year career in search of the American dream. I wanted to be my own boss control my own destiny and own my own business. I wanted to start my own apparel line but I did not have the space for everything it takes to run a screen printing business. That's when White toner printing got my attention. I did countless hours of research trying to determine if digital printing would work for me and if it did, what machine would fit my business plan. Well after my first phone conversation with Joe Dovi I knew this was the perfect fit and I knew exactly what I needed. More importantly I knew Uninet was perfect for my business. A relationship is always more important to me than a transaction, especially when you are completely new to something. You need to know you can lean on that relationship for support and insight, you need to trust that they will always do what is best for you and your business. Every interaction that I have with Joe, Sue and the team at Uninet only confirms that I made the right decision when I decided to trust Uninet with my business! The fastest response time to any question I have, Products arrive the next day and most importantly they truly care about the success of my business.
