

iColor[™] 700

FEATURE LIST

The overall benefit for the end user is the fact that the iColor[™] 700 is a small and easy label printer to install and operate. The physical footprint is small enough that the printer can practically fit anywhere and be easily mobilized.

The label software is very easy to use and allows the quick and simple selection of different media types in different configurations such as die cut. The entire operation of the iColor[™] 700 is so simple that you will never have to relearn the procedures just follow the chronological steps.

Other features include

- Speed – 8 Meters/minute, 30 Feet/minute
- Color Management – Full Color Pro version of the Harlequin[®] RIP software
- Dry Toner Technology – Great light resistivity BWS of 7,6,7,5 C,M,Y,K respectively
- Resource Management - Job costing
- Nesting – Gang several jobs together to make one large label run
- Desktop – Requires very little space
- Roll to Roll – 203 mm OD, 8 inch OD roll
- Variable Width – 213 to 140 mm, 8.5 to 5.5 inches
- Media's – Runs on paper, plastic, texture and fabric.
- Variable Data
- 2,000 full color labels in 20 minutes (102 x 153 mm, 4 x 6 inches label size)